

Thursday, June 23, 2005

TRIBUNE C7

Latino Business Leaders Forum to be held in July

STAFF REPORTS

Rep. Marilyn Musgrave, R-Colo., has announced the 2005 Weld County Latino Business Leaders Forum will be July 6.

Musgrave said Kathleen Cooper, U.S. undersecretary of economics, will be the featured speaker. She is the primary adviser on economic and job growth issues to Commerce Secretary Carlos Gutierrez.

Weld County Clerk and Recorder Steve Moreno and Colorado Latino Coalition State Chairman Jorge Amaya have joined as the host committee members for this event.

The event, she said, will be

JULY FORUM

The 2005 Weld County Latino Business Leaders Forum will be 2-3 p.m. at Swift & Co. headquarters at Promontory.

Reservations are requested no later than Wednesday and may be made by calling 352-4037.

an opportunity for Weld's Latino business and community leaders to discuss issues that are important to business, such as agricultural business issues, taxes, immigration, trade and other economic issues.